Consent for Processing Personal Data

The Arab-German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities (AGYA) intends to collect and use personal data for conducting and administering the application process and for statistical purposes during the selection process for AGYA Membership 2022. Applicants are asked to give their consent to this (with reference to GDPR Art. 6 (1) lit. a). Providing this agreement is a required part of the application process which otherwise cannot be continued. Data shall be stored up to 6 months after the inauguration of the new members (consequently, a potential 2022 member's data will be stored until second half of May 2023).

AGYA processes the following personal data:

name, year of birth, nationality, gender, contact details (including telephone number, email and postal addresses, Skype name), research discipline and subject, country of work, place of work, employment history (CV), references, publication list, online research files, information on PhD degree (scan of the PhD certificate) and scholarships/awards.

Please note that your data will only be used to complete the selection process. In this regard, we may transfer your personal data to third parties only if it is 1) inevitable for completing the selection process and 2) refers directly to the initial purpose of using the personal data. We do not use your personal data for any kind of profiling or use in automated decision making processes. For more information, please refer to our privacy policy published online here: <http://agya.info/privacy-policy/>. If you have any questions or concerns regarding data protection, please contact Prof. Dr. Matthäus Heil (heil@bbaw.de).

In accordance with Art. 15 of the GDPR, you are entitled to obtain access to your personal data stored by AGYA. Pursuant to Art. 16-18 of the GDPR, you have the right to demand rectification, erasure or blocking of individual personal data stored with us. Furthermore, you may at any time and without giving reasons exercise your right to object and change or withdraw with future effect the consent given. You can send the withdrawal either per post to the official AGYA mail address in Germany (see below) or by e-mail (agya@bbaw.de) to AGYA. There will be no other costs than the postage and/or the transmission costs according to the existing base rates. According to Art. 20 of the GDPR, you have the right to receive your personal data, which you have provided to us, in a structured, common and machine-readable format, or to request the transfer to another responsible party.
