The Arab-German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities (AGYA)

CALL FOR MEMBERSHIP APPLICATIONS 2025

CONNECT. COLLABORATE. CO-CREATE.

Apply now until 10 April 2025.

The Arab-German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities (AGYA) is looking for new members!

AGYA promotes research cooperation among excellent early-career researchers (3-10 years after PhD) from all disciplines affiliated with a research institution in Germany or any Arab country.

The academy supports the inter- and transdisciplinary research projects by its members who collaborate in Arab-German tandems and working groups on topics such as Health and Society; Dynamics of Transformation; Energy, Water and Environment; Arab and German Education; Common Heritage and Common Challenges; and Innovation.

AGYA is based at the Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities (BBAW) in Germany and at the Academy of Scientific Research and Technology (ASRT) in Egypt. AGYA is funded by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF) and several Arab and German cooperation partners.

For detailed information on the AGYA Call for Membership Applications 2025, please visit our website: www.agya.info/about-us/call2025

Application Process

Interested applicants are required to submit the following documents in English:

- Application form, available for download at www.agya.info/about-us/call2025
- CV, including a list of publications and a scan of the PhD certificate
- Letter of motivation
- Two up-to-date academic reference letters supporting the application for AGYA membership

All documents should be submitted at the latest as a single PDF file via email to application@agya.info by 10 April 2025.

AGYA allows me to cooperate with scholars from different cultural and disciplinary backgrounds to shift perspectives and grow in understanding.
