About AGYA

The Arab–German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities (AGYA) was established in 2013 as the first bilateral young academy worldwide. It is based at the Academy of Scientific Research and Technology (ASRT) in Egypt and the Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities (BBAW) in Germany. AGYA promotes research cooperation among outstanding early-career researchers (3–10 years after PhD) from all disciplines who are affiliated with a research institution in Germany or any of the Arab countries: Algeria, Bahrain, Comoros, Djibouti, Egypt, Germany, Iraq, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libya, Mauritania, Morocco, Oman, Palestine, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Somalia, Sudan, Syria, Tunisia, United Arab Emirates, Yemen.

The academy effectively supports the interdisciplinary projects and collaborative initiatives of its members in various fields of scientific research, science policy and education. The AGYA members jointly initiate and implement yearly more than 50 interdisciplinary projects and collaborative initiatives on research topics such as Arab and German Education; Common Heritage and Common Challenges; Energy, Water and Environment; Health & Society; Innovation and Transformation. AGYA is funded by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF) and various Arab cooperation partners.
