7. Declaration of Consent for the Collection and Processing of Personal Data

The Arab-German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities (AGYA) intends to collect and use personal data for conducting and administering the AGYA Idea Contest. Applicants are asked to give their consent to this (with reference to GDPR Art. 6 (1) lit. a). Providing this agreement is a required part of the submission process which otherwise cannot be continued. Data shall be stored up to 6 months after the AGYA Idea Contest has taken place and the training courses are completed. Your submission and your name will appear in an online presentation format and will be used for AGYA's public relations (e.g., webpage, social media channels). AGYA processes all personal data mentioned in this submission form.

We do not use your personal data for any kind of profiling or use in automated decision-making processes. For more information, please refer to our privacy policy published online here: <http://agya.info/privacy-policy/>. If you have any questions or concerns regarding data protection, please contact us.

In accordance with Art. 15 of the GDPR, you are entitled to obtain access to your personal data stored by AGYA. Pursuant to Art. 16-18 of the GDPR, you have the right to demand rectification, erasure, or blocking of individual personal data stored with us. Furthermore, you may at any time and without giving reasons exercise your right to object and change or withdraw with future effect the consent given. You can send the withdrawal by e-mail (idea.contest@agya.info) to AGYA. According to Art. 20 of the GDPR, you have the right to receive your personal data, which you have provided to us, in a structured, common, and machine-readable format, or to request the transfer to another responsible party.
